R. WEDWORTH WADSWORTH

LANDSCAPE PAINTER IN PURE AQUARELLE, was born in Buffalo, N. Y., of New England parentage, in 1846. His father, James Wadsworth, was a distinguished lawyer of Buffalo and New York City; was grand-nephew of General James Wadsworth of Revolutionary fame; cousin of General James S. Wadsworth of Genesee, N.Y., killed at the battle of the Wilderness, and collaterally related to "Charter Oak" Wadsworth and to the poet Henry Wadsworth Longfellow.

Mr. Wedworth Wadsworth, the subject of this sketch, who is the fifth generation of Yale men of that name, graduated from the Yale Scientific Department in 1867, as Ph.B.; chose Art as his profession; studied under the influence of the English School of Water Colorists directly from Nature and without Masters; has travelled, sketched and written largely in America and foreign Countries,—notably in Portugal, France, Spain, Italy, Turkey, Egypt, Tunis and Algiers, and has exhibited in the principal cities of this Country and in Paris, Munich, etc. He is a member of many New York Art Societies.
